

RESOLUTIONS.

1832.

No. 88.

Resolution in favor of the Adjutant General.

Passed March 23.

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Treasurer of the Western Shore, be, and he is hereby authorised and required to pay annually to the Adjutant General of the State of Maryland, the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars, in addition to the salary now allowed him by law.

No. 89.

Resolution relative to the Armouries.

Passed March 27.

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Executive be, and they are hereby authorised to cause such of the arms as may require it in the different armouries of the state, to be cleaned and put in good order, under the superintendence of the armourers, so that they may be preserved from further injury by rust, and the Treasurer of the Western Shore, is hereby required to pay to the order of the Executive, any sum or sums that may be necessary for that purpose.

Resolved, That it shall be the duty of the several armourers of the state, after the arms in their respective armouries shall have been put in good condition, to keep them so, and defray the expense thereof out of their salaries, and the Adjutant General shall inspect the arms in the armoury at Annapolis, as now required, and in future shall cause those in the armouries at Easton and Frederick, also to be inspected annually, and notice the same in his annual report to the Executive.

No. 90.

Resolution in honor of the late Charles Carroll, of Carrollton. Passed March 11.

The General Assembly of Maryland, apprized of the death of the venerated Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, would at the close of a career of such distinguished patriotism